Galerie Mark Hachem is pleased to present Henry Di Donna work in New York !

Henry Di-Donna lived in several countries, Algeria, France, Canada, Bahamas Islands, Japan, Great-Britain, New-Caledonia, Luxembourg and United States as journalist with an impressive career of 30 years .

Form all his stays and after long studies of religions and philosophies occidental and oriental, he decided to turn exclusively to painting in 1985.

He develop a spiritual painting, with geometric forms and in a colorful way, he successfully blends the style of the West and the essence of the East. As an Occidental and in his original style of painting, without copying the Asiatic expression ,he expresses his major feeling of Zen.

He tries to find a spiritual quest, destined to suppress suffering and bring peace to the soul.
